

Lawyer is flying high

Michael Slack, Austin managing partner and co-founder of aviation-focused law firm Slack Davis Sanger LLP, was selected as a distinguished alumnus by the Department of Aerospace Engineering at Texas A&M University. This is the highest distinction from the Aerospace Alumni Academy.

A big party – littles welcome, too

1. Little Brother Mi'Tiy (left) and Big Brother Nicholas Johnson were among 500 people who had fun at Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Texas' annual holiday party. 2. Jose enjoys a game of chess with his Big Brother R.C. Mosier.

Cielo Property Group co-founder Bobby Dillard holds one of 2,000 fleece sweaters Cielo donated as part of the company's $1 million pledge to help Austin's homeless. Also pictured: Council Member Kathie Tovo (middle) and Ann Howard of ECHO.

Troops transport toys to tots

Just before Christmas, the Texas State Guard delivered toys to St. David's Children's Hospital as part of its Young Heroes of the Guard toy drive program for pediatric patients. Some of the toys were given during the holidays but there's enough to go around during part of 2019.